On motion of McDevitt, seconded by Johnson, it was decided to notify all property owners on Second Street East, between Spain and Napa Streets, to put in curb and gutter.

On motion, the Board adjourned.

VISITS FORMER HOME

James Shearer arrived here from Anaheim, Monday, to visit in the historic city of which he was a resident nearly half a century ago. Forty years have elapsed since the removal of the gentleman from here, and he found that Sonoma was keeping pace with the onward march of progress. Mr. Shearer is a relative of Charles Baines of this valley.

CARLOAD OF FOWLS FROM SONOMA TO BE EXHIBITED

Another noteworthy movement to bring Sonoma Valley to the fore has been inaugurated by Manager E. T. Lindley, of the Sonoma Feed Store, through the instrumentality of the well-known metropolitan firm of Geo. H. Croley Company. If the efforts of Mr. Lindley are successful—and he's of that determined caliber to override obstacles persistently to accomplishment—the poultry industry of this valley will be largely advertised at the Exposition this fall.

That poultry producing is one of the greatest and most promising industries of this section is evidenced by the following communication, written by Mr. Croley to his Sonoma representative, Mr. Lindley:

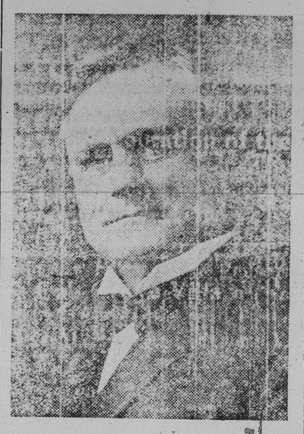
"While it is not generally known to the people of the State, that portion of Sonoma County immediately surrounding Sonoma City is an important poultry section. The poultry breeders of that district take great pride in the quality of their eggs and are striving to keep pace with other parts of the State in improving the quality and productiveness of their flocks.

"As a means of keeping up to the minute in regard to the latest improvements in poultry keeping, a number of breeders had determined to visit the Universal Poultry Show at the Exposition, Nov. 18th to 28th, and a few had considered entering some fowls in the show, but when it became known that the breeders of Sacramento intended sending a carload of fowls to this exhibition, there was a great awakening of the leading poultrymen, which will result in a carload shipment of fancy and utility fowls from Sonoma City.

"We understand that by employing a car, the entire cost of transporting the fowls to the show and return will amount to only about ten cents each."

Mr. Lindley will at once take up the matter with poultrymen, whose co-operation he earnestly asks for. A petition, started by Mr. Lindley with five dollars, will be circulated by that gentleman, to raise funds for chartering of car, etc. All breeds of fowls, utility and fancy, are to make up the display of this growing Sonoma enterprise.

EDWARD H. HART CALLS ON SONOMA VALLEY FRIENDS



"I am very glad to revisit my Sonoma friends again," said Edward H. Hart, who was the Republican candidate for Congress in this district last year, and who dropped into town for a brief visit Thursday.

"I miss very much the kindly greetings and cheery smile of my old friend Granice, who always welcomed me when I came to Sonoma. This section lost a valuable citizen when he passed away.

"I have been on a trip along the Coast to Del Norte County, and am now on my way home at Ross. I have thoroughly enjoyed the journey, and everywhere I found good prospects but business is depressed and no great change is looked for until after the Presidential election next year.

"I am deeply grateful to my friends in Sonoma for the handsome vote they gave me at the last election. It was a compliment which, believe me, I very highly appreciate."

Mr. Hart was accompanied by his campaign manager, the genial Major J. F. Carrere, of Sacramento, Cal. Both gentlemen were in splendid health and looked it. Both were in eexcellent spirits, too. As to politics, and his possible candidacy at the next election, Mr. Hart was not yet prepared to discuss. However, his friends and loyal supporters are getting ready to again too in the ring in behalf of this sterling "man of and for the people."

Sonoma friends were pleased to learn that Mrs. Hart and her beautiful twin babies are enjoying good health.

FRIENDS CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY OF MARRIAGE

On Tuesday of last week, June 29th, the twenty-second milestone was reached in the matrimonial journey of Supervisor and Mrs. J. Harry Weise, and the evening of the anniversary was happily celebrated at the family residence in Glen Ellen.

Supervisor and Mrs. Weise decided to pass the day of cherished memories quietly, but friends and neighbors planned otherwise. To the number of thirty-five they assembled and wended their way to the Weise home, taking their host and hostess completely by surprise. The cordial hospitality characteristic of the much-esteemed couple made the invaders royally welcome, and the occasion as enjoyable to the guests as it was to the recipients of the honor.

Dancing, games, music and the interchange of reminiscences—such as are so delightful to recall on so joyous an occasion—filled the hours most happily.

A jolly feature, which was not lacking in impressiveness, was the performance of a mock marriage ceremony, Judge John F. Trusty officiating with grave demeanor. The groom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weise, attended the couple as best man and matron of honor. Little Miss Grace Cooney strewed rose petals along the bridal pathway, while the wedding march was effectively rendered by Miss Mildred Madison. The bride of over twenty years was attractive in her bridal finery, with flowing, filmy veil, and she carried a cluster of sweet peas.

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Weise was solemnized in the parlors of the old Grand Hotel, at Santa Rosa, Rev. Father J. M. Cassin officiating. They have continuously resided in the old homestead in which Mrs. Weise, who was Miss Sophia Williams prior to her marriage, was born and reared. Three children blessed the union of Supervisor and Mrs. Weise—a daughter, Miss Helen, and two sons, Harold and Shirley.

Throughout the valley this respected couple have scores of sincere friends whose cordial congratulations are extended, and hopes expressed that the golden mark will find Mr. and Mrs. Weise happy in the companionship of each other.

Popular Sonoma Girls Are July Brides---Miss Emily Jones Wedded

Wily Cupid smiled quite serenely at his success in luring into wedlock "Two hearts that beat as one," when the wires bore the announcement to Sonoma, Tuesday, of the marriage of Miss Anita Basaglia and William Ives. The news was somewhat of a surprise to relatives and friends, although the bethrothal of the young people was not altogether a secret. They quietly slipped away to San Francisco for the celebration of the nuptials. The bride—a pretty and popular girl—is a daughter of Mrs. P. Basaglia, a pioneer resident of the Sonoma Valley, whose family of daughters and sons are all respected and esteemed in our town and valley. Mesdames A. Pera and M. Gori are sisters of the fair girl bride. The groom is a worthy young man and holds a good position with Grace Brothers, Santa Rosa, in which city Mr. and Mrs. Ives will make their home. With other friends, we unite in extending congratlations to the happy twain.

Another fair Sonoma Valley girl who was also a bride of Tuesday last, was Miss Annie Farrell, the daughter of Mrs. M. Farrell, one of the valley's well-known and respected residents, and proprietor of that nicely-conducted family resort, "The Oaks."

Williom I. Kirby, the estimable and well-liked manager of Boyes' Springs Club House, is the fortunate young man upon whom the heart and hand of popular Miss Farrell was bestowed. Their marriage was solemnized in St. Mary's Cathedral, San Francisco, Rev. Father Sullivan reading the impressive ritual.

The young couple will make their home at Boyes' Springs. They have innumerable friends here and elsewhere whose hearty best wishes are showered upon the bridal pair. We trust their wedded life may be filled with happiness and prosperity.

A host of friends in the Sonoma Valley are speeding affectionate messages and the most sincere and cordial congratulations to a former Sonoma young woman, Miss Emily Gregory Jones, who was given in marriage to Henry Van Der Burg, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Jones, in Oakland, on Wednesdy, July 7th. The happy twain will be "At Home" after July 15th, at 693 Brockhurst Street, Oakland. The bride is an intellectual young woman of splendid attainments, and during the years of her residence in our city established a wide circle of friends.

Trade--at--Home Campaign

As new blood entered the retail trade and as new ideas gained a foothold and new methods were adopted, many schemes and plans were tried and discarded by the merchants in an effort to regain the lost business that they felt rightfully belonged to them. It was not, however, until the fact became apparent that only by educating the people to see for themselves the real truth about mail-order competition that they met with any success. But wherever that fact has been realized and there has been a bunch of live-wire, progressive merchants to preach and practice the doctrine of "service" and "quality," and to educate their people to the dollar and cents wisdom of comparative investigation, the mail order fad is on the wane and commercial prosperity again assured.

The towns where this has been accomplished enjoy no exceptional advantages and their merchants are subject to the same general conditions prevailing elsew ere in the country. But the up-to-date merchant whose watchword is "efficiency," no matter where he may be located can, with very few exceptions, meet mail-order competition of any kind if the people of his community will but give him the opportunity.

NEWS NOTES BY CORRESPONDENTS

THE FOURTH AT PROGRESSIVE VINEBURG

The Second Annual Celebration of the "Glorious Fourth" was duly observed in Vineburg!

The festivities, which lasted three days, were under the mangement of A. W. Lehrke and his able business manager, Howard Brown, at New Vineburg Inn, and comprised every form of diversion appropriate to the proper commemoration of the Nation's Birthday. Music and dancing, games of all kinds, fireworks, and, above all, the feast of delicious barbecued beef, contributed to making up a splendid, good time—just "the very best time ever!"

Many hundreds of people enjoyed the hospitality of Vineburg Inn, and all who had the pleasure of being present, departed more than pleased with their reception.

Among the many autos to stop at the burg on Monday, the 5th, was a large truck loaded down with a jolly bunch of prominent Vallejo citizens. In the party were Edward Kelly of the Vallejo News, and Henry Dillas Valking, the well-known vocalist. After saluting "Old Glory," singing "The Star Spangled Banner," and exchanging greetings with the affable hosts of the occasion, Messrs Lehrke and Brown, the visitors departed for their Vallejo homes.

A notable feature of the celebration was the large number of ladies present from all parts of the Sonoma Valley and the bay cities. And, too, another commendable fact, is the quiet manner in which the "big doings" passed off—not an single disturbance marring the enjoyment of any one of the three days.

A. W. Lehrke and his "right hand bower," Howard Brown, desire to express their thanks to their friends and the public in general for the generous patronage accorded them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Leahey, of San Francisco, spent the week-end at Vineburg, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A W Lehrke.

Frank Nolan, a well-known young business man, of San Francisco, was a Vineburg visitor on the 4th and 5th.

Henry Hauer, of Rhine Farm, was a guest at New Vineburg Inn on July 4th and 5th, exchanging greetings with his many friends.

August Figone, proprietor of the Vineburg Wine Vaults in the Bay City, spent the week-end at the John Batto home with his family.

About fifteen teams have been engaged for the last two weeks hauling sand and gravel from Vineburg station to the State Highway on the Napa divide.

Mr. and Mrs. Bosquit and son Alfred were week-end guests at the Fred Batto home. Mr. Bosquit returned to San Francisco, on Monday morning, while his wife and son remained to visit for several days.

Fred and Arthur Batto made their annual trip through the grain sections of the San Joaquin and Sacramento Valleys, this week and we expect there will be something doing at the Spur in the near-by future.

Messrs. Edward and William Goetz, president and business manager of the Majestic Bottling Company, Inc., of San Francisco, accompanied by their wives, were guests at New Vineburg Inn during the Fourth of July festivities.

G. Testino, capitalist, of Vineburg, left for the metropolis, last Sunday, and during his stay will foreclose some mortgages on valuable real estate. Some people think that Mr. Testino is trying to float a loan for the Italian Government, but this is not a fact.

Last Tuesday afternoon, the following well-known Sonoma Valleyites, visited the burg: Constable Jack Murray, Paul Vanucci of Verano, Sporting Editor Chip Bonner of the Index, and Baseball Magnate James Laurence Modini of Sonoma. Call again, gentlemen! To you we are always at home!

Mrs. O. F Minedew and daughter, Miss Pearl, who were guests of the lady's brother, Howard Brown at New Vineburg Inn, returned to their home in San Francisco, Monday last. Miss Pearl is an accomplished pianist and a sweet-voiced vocalist, and the charming little lady gave much pleasure and made many friends during her visit.

EASY JIM.

SCHELLVILLE

Joe Keiser is shipping some fine apricots this week.

Mrs. E E. Bennett drove over to the "Egg City" on Tuesday.

John Neufer, of Oakland, visited at the Conrad Keiser ranch, Tuesday.

F. W. Dobbel, of Buena Vista, made a business trip to Petaluma Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs Ed Steiger, of Caliente, spent Friday evening at the Erhard teiger ranch.

"Easy Jim," a very popular resident of Vineburg, called on Schellville friends, Tuesday.

Miss Shirley Sanders, a former school teacher of San Luis, arrived here Saturday from her home in Santa Clara, to be a guest at the home of Mr and Mrs. Fred Helberg for a few days.

Mrs A. R. Bird was hostess to "The Jolly Twelve Club," last Saturday evening, July 3rd. Everything was carried out in the national colors in tribute to Independence Day, and those fortunate enough to be present report a most pleasurable time.

The population of Schellville has been increased by the locating here of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Jessen, late of aan Francisco. The Jessens have taken the E. P. Steddom ranch. We are glad to welcome the newcomers, and hope they will find their lot has been cast in "pleasant places."

HAPPY JACK.

Death of Mrs. Van Every

Mrs. Mary Van Every, who for more than half a century had been a resident of Sonoma, passed to rest at the D. Valente home, Monday evening. Mrs. Van Every was a native of Australia and aged eighty six years. Although twice married, deceased is survived by no relatives as far as is known. Her first husband held a government position in China, and Mrs. Van Every had been of good family connections and well respected. Her remains were shipped to San Francisco, Tuesday afternoon, for cremation.

DOINGS OF INTEREST IN THE SONOMA VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Cassin had as their guest last week. Geo. D. Atkins, of the Corticelli Silk Company, New York.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Gottenberg returned from a several days' visit with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Appleton, in Berkeley, on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Carrie A. Burlingame returned, Tuesday evening, from a ten days' Exposition sight-seeing trip. While in San Francisco, Mrs. Burlingame was the guest of her friend, Mrs. Anna Hopps.

Her friends, and they are legion, were glad to greet Miss Agnes Moss on her return from Portland, Oregon last week. During her month away, this popular girl was greatly missed by the younger social set.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and daughters, of Long Beach, visited in the valley this week. Mrs. Smith was Miss Susie Shaw prior to her marriage, and a teacher in the local grammar school. She is favorably remembered by old-time Sonoma residents.

Mrs. George Breitenbach and neice, Miss Ethel Evans, have returned from a several days' visit with the lady's neice, Mrs. Walter Baehr, in San Francisco. Mrs. Baehr is very well known in this valley, having taught school at Vineburg.

Quite a number of prominent Sonoma Valley residents motored over to Dillon's Beach to recreate over Independence Day. Among others were: Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Adler, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Watt, Mrs. Pauline McMullin, Miss Eleanor Kehoe, Dr. W. B. Hays, Dr. J. M. Arburua, Harry Quartaroli, Edgar Clements and Ray Cooper. The party report a delightful trip.

Miss Helen Antrim was entertained by Professor and Mrs. A. B. Inham (nee Miss Helen Rowell) in Berkeley, over the holiday.

The Woman's Club is now planning for an out-of-door play to be staged by moonlight (and otherwise) in September. It will be a notable event for Sonoma.

Miss Florence Green returned, Thursday evening, from a week's sojourn at La Honda—one of California's beautiful summering resorts, located in the Santa Cruz Mountains.

Mrs. S. McElroy and petite granddaughter, dainty Miss Aletha Skinner, have returned from a sojourn with ths lady's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hall, in San Anselmo.

B. F. Hart had the pleasure last week of entertaining his brother Herbert F. Hart, of Poughkeepsie, New York. On Tuesday both gentlemen departed for San Francisco to view the Exposition and other points of interest in California.

The beautiful American flag, which adorned the Union Hotel over July 4th, is to grace Sonoma's handsome new Grammar School Building, the gift of Contractor R. H. Ingraham. No finer national emblem will be boasted in the Sonoma Valley than the stars and stripes which float from the flag-staff reared aloft over our local school. The emblem is twelve by twenty-two feet in dimensions.

Congratulatory messages have been speeding to Mr. and Mrs. Garrett H. Stock (nee Miss Georgie Andrews) since June 26th, on which date Garrett Howard Stock, Jr., made his advent amidst great rejoicing. Baby Stock tipped the scales at eight pounds, and with his happy young mother is under the care of Mrs. Stock's uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Leix, in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown enjoyed the July three-day holiday at the favored Sonoma County summering place, Monte Rio.

Mrs. Ralph Hotz and manly Master Preston, visited relatives in Healdsburg Saturday, returning to celebrate July Fourth in Sonoma Valley.

Mrs. Charles La Torres and daughter, Miss Providence, were among the many who enjoyed the Exposition during the three days' holiday.

Principal M. H. Rowell, of the Sonoma Valley Union High School, accompanied by Mrs. Rowell and her mother, Mrs. C. D. Merrill, of Los Angeles, are summering at Yosemite.

Next week, Miss Gladys Simmons leaves for the southland, to recreate at La Jolla for a few weeks. This popular Sonoma girl will enter St. Luke's Hospital, September 1st, to train for a nurse.

Letters received from Miss Henrietta Weber tell of pleasurable times at "David Camp," Yosemite Valley, where she is spending the summer as the guest of Mrs. Foster Curry, who is favorably remembered in Sonoma as Miss Mary Cherry.

"Sonoma Valley certainly done herself proud over the three days' celebration," declared Peace Officer Jack Murray to an Index representative Tuesday. "There were no disturbances to speak of, save in a minor way." Considering the fact that there were thousands of people in the valley, this is record-breaking. But, then, our readers should bear the sact in mind that Sonoma Valley has an established reputation for speedily apprehending and meting out punishment to law-breakers. A suggestion to the wise is sufficient, as a rule.

Mrs. Mae Ehrlebach and little son Victor returned from a holiday visit in San Francisco, Monday evening.

G. C. White, member of the Board of Fire Underwriters, San Francisco, was the guest of Dr. C. L. Harvey the July holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Gori (nee Angelina Basaglia) are rejoicing over the advent of their first-born—a lovely duaghter, who arrived Saturday, July 3rd. The happy parents are being warmly congratulated.

Mrs. S. D. Glaister and family arrived here last Saturday evening for a visit with the lady's mother, Mrs. D. Burris, and other relatives. A host of friends are glad to greet Mrs. Glaister and her interesting children, who have been missed from our circles. The Glaisters are pleasantly located in Santa Barbara.

Harry Lindley, who arrived in Sonoma a month ago from Utah, has decided to remain here permanently, and will be associated with his brother, E. T. Lindley, in the conduct of the Sonoma Feed Store. The young man will prove a valuable acquisition in social as well business circles.

The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Minkel, in El Verano, has been the scene of much pleasantry in a social way within the fortnight. Assisted by their charming daughters, the Misses Myrtle and Marie, Mr. and Mrs. Minkel entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hawes of Oakland, their neices, the Misses Eva Nordwell and Elizabeth Hubbard of Piedmont, and from Saturday-to-Monday last the Minkels had as guests the Misses Irene and Evelyn Rood and Mr. B. Leister, of San Francisco. Miss Marie Minkel is now enjoying an out-of-town visit, the guest of the A. V. Clarks in Alameda.

E. T. Lindley, manager of the Sonoma Feed Store, accompanied by his wife and little son, spent the July holidays in San Francisco. Mrs. Lindley and son prolonged their visit throughout the week.

Friends of charming Miss Dorothy Gise, of Benicia, are looking forward pleasantly to her coming visit to Sonoma. She is expected next week, and will be entertained by the Misses Nancy and Zoleta Bates. By-the-bye, guests at the Bates home will henceforth enjoy the additional pleasure of motoring, as genial Henry F. has purchased a Buick Touring Car, to be delivered, it is expected, next week.

James Maffei, of the reliable firm of Nichelini & Maffei, the well-known local hardware merchants, is certainly a "live wire" salesman. Although holding the agency of the 1916 Overland Auto for but a short time, the sale of three of these fine touring cars has been effected. The proud owners of the new Overlands are Mont Akers, Victor Leveroni and Chas. Stornetti. Mr. Maffei reports other sales pending.

Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. A. D. Lowell entertained the Missionary Society at a "Tea." The gracious hostess was assisted by Mrs. O. J. McKinnon, president of the organization, and their joint efforts resulted in a most pleasurable time for the eighteen ladies present. The hours were replete with interest, too, along the lines of work in which the Society is active. Reports were read pertaining to accomplishments at the Woman's Missionary Congress, which convened in San Francisco, June 6th to 13th, inclusive. Literature was read relative to the wonderful awakening of China and the acceptance by the Chinese people of the Christian religion. Much profitable information was given out during the readings and discussions.

Next on the tapis for consideration, in the way of out-door fetes, is the picnic, to be given at Oak Grove Villa, under the auspices of the Sonoma Native Sons' Drum Corps. Sunday, July 18th, is the day chosen for this big event, to which pleasure-seekers are looking forward. If the coming event is as successful as that given last season, than the Drum Corps is to be congratulated. At a meeting to be held tomorrow forenoon, the various committees will be named to complete arrangements for the affair.

In the "Twenty Years Ago" news notes in last week's issue, taken from Index-Tribune of July 6, '95, we copied that which stated that "For the first time in twenty years rain fell in this valley on the Fourth." The note stated, furthermore, "the precipitation in 1875 was very slight," while that of '65 amounted to almost a downpour. The Index-Tribune of twenty years hence may chronicle the noteworthy fact that, on July 4th, 1915, Jupiter Pluvius completed his alloted cycle of time and again visited the Valley of the Moon.

The delightful suburban home of Mrs. G. M. Chase was the scene of a jolly house party, Saturday night, at which a number of the friends of the hostess' son, George, were afforded the privilege of an evening with this esteemed young man. This is a rare pleasure, by-the-way, as George holds a responsible position in San Francisco, coming home for week-end visits. Dancing and fireworks were the principa diversions, with delicious refreshments served on the lawn. Those who enjoyed this pleasurable event were: Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Michelssen, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutgens; Misses Florence Rubke, Nancy Bates, Gladys Simmons, Myrtle Minkel, Gertrude Breitenbach, Anita Gasner, Irene and Evelyn Rood; Messrs. B. Leister, Hamil Wagnon, Edgar Clements, James Gottenberg, Ray Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robin had the pleasure of entertaining Mrs. Robin's sister and brother, Miss Ella and George Estes, of the Bay City over the Fourth.

YOU are asked to look over your discarded or surplus stock of clothing, dis'es, furniture and bric-a-brac, and to donate everything possible to the Grand Rummage Sale to be held next month for the benefit of the Woman's Club House. Details later.

From Postmaster John D. Wagnon we learn that Uncle Sam's local mail servitors expect to move into their new home Thursday of next week. A. W. Adler is rushing the office equipments through to completion. Slight delay may be occasioned by the breakage of a number of lock boxes en route from Indianapolis, but it is hoped that the telegraphic order for replacement will be filled in time.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodor Richards of the Caliente Hot Springs, with characteristic enterprise, retained the Hawaiian Seranders for the production of their delightful success, "A Night in Hawaii," tonight and tomorrow night, Saturday and Sunday. Many new features are to be introduced, and a repetition of the fascinating native dances will be enjoyed. In connection, three cash prizes will be given for the best waltzers. Remember, too, that everything is free at the Agua Caliente Springs' New Auditorium and Festival Hall.

Thursday morning, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hanger, accompanied by their little grandson, Cecil Hunter, departed for San Francisco, to be on hand to greet the chief executive of their native State, Governor Carter Stewart of Virginia, and to unite with other loyal Virginians in celebrating their State's day at the Exposition. The daughters of this much-esteemed couple—Mrs. Campbell Pomeroy of Santa Rosa, and Mrs. Ray Hunter of Sonoma—were also born in this Southern State. Mr. Hanger will return in about a week, while his wife will remain until after the Liberty Bell has been placed in position.

Odd Fellows' Hall was beautifully decorated in the Rebekah colors, pink and white, for the installation of the newly-elected officers of Verdant Rebekah Lodge, Thursday evening. Pink and white oleanders and dahlias intermingled with luxuriant greenery. Bunches of oak leaf were also effectively used, an honor thought for the installing officers, District Deputy Mrs Martha Gamble and Deputy Grand Marshal Mrs. LeBaron, both of whom are members of Oak Leaf Rebekah Lodge of Santa Rosa. The ladies inducted into office and their respective stations are as follows: Noble Grand, Mrs. Alice Wagnon; vice grand, Miss Jessie Hiser; treasurer, Miss Gladys Small; secretary, Miss Anita Breitenbach; warden, Mrs. Ida Entelman; conductor, Miss Grace McGimsey; chaplain, Mrs. Emma Small; right support noble grand, Mrs. Susie Revie; left support noble grand, Mrs. Perle Hunter; right support vice grand, Mrs. Louise Rubke; left support vice grand, Miss Stella McGill; inside guardian, Miss Amy Rowe; outside guardian, Miss Nellie Peterson; past noble grand, Mrs. Blanche Rambo.

Verdant Rebekah Lodge inaugurated an to-be-appreciated feature at this meeting, in the presentation to old-time members of an emblematic pin. This honor was bestowed on Mrs. Julius Poppe, Thursday evening. Mrs. Poppe became a Rebekah at the institution of Verdant Lodge on May 4th, 1886, and is the only living lady member of the local branch of the fraternity.

Some "Twenty Years Ago" in Old Sonoma

(FROM THE SONOMA INDEX-TRIBUNE OF JULY 13, 1895.)

A prominent fruit gr wer in this valley contracted t.is week with a San Francisco cannery to sell his en ire Bartlett pear crop for $25 per ton. This is considered a fair price.

The bicycle races over the Plaza track last Sunday brought out a large number of people. The first race, a one-mile scratch, was the most exciting contest of the day. There were three entries, to-wit: Frank Burris of the Sonoma Bicycle Club and Golden City Wheelmen, and Frank Peters and Frank Brown of the Petaluma Wheelmen's Club. The race was awarded to Burris by H. H. Granice, the judge, time 2.40. The second race, two miles, open to members of the Sonoma Bicycle Club only, had but two contestants, Capt. Rea and Eugene Donaldson. The latter won easily. Time, 6:36. The third race was a one-mile handicap free to all. In this race Burris and Peters were again pitted against each other. Self Dominiconi also entered this race, and was given fifty yards the start, while Burris and Peters started from the scratch. The race was won by Dominiconi, Burris second, Pet rs third. Best time, 2:45. The fourth race, a two-thirds of a mile handicap, free-to-all, was won by Frank Burris, Harry Brown second, and Wm. Kerner third. In this race Brown and Burris started from the scratch and had not the former met with an accident, he would undoubtedly have won the race.

On Fourth of July morning while Mr. and Mrs. H. Appleton and family were in town attending the celebration their residence, two miles west of Sonoma, was entered by thieves who ransacked the house for valuables. In a bureau drawer were found a gold watch and ring and $2.50 in money, which were appropriated.

The band concert held in Union Hall on Friday evening of last week was indeed a rare treat to our music-loving people. The tumultuous applause that greeted each number on the programme showed that the audience was pleased and delighted.

The euphonium solo by Claude Johnson was one of the best numbers, and the saxaphone solo by Frank A. Riser was greeted by hearty applause.

The only vocal selection was rendered by Miss Julie Graniee, whose int rpretation of Shelley's "Love's Sorrow" won for her much praise, and her voice, a deep contralto, was pronounced by all the musical critics present to be phenomenal. In answer to an encore, she sang "Annie Laurie."

The selections by the band from DeKoven, Wagner, Strauss, Sousa and other eminent composers were rendered in excellent style and showed careful training on the part of the band's young leader, Hugh G. Maxwell.

City Assessor Breitenbach has completed the assessment for 1895. The total value of all property is set down at $327,690, divided as follows: Town lots, $104,170; improvements, $155,860; personal property, $66,660. This is a falling off of $11,030 as compared with 1994. As a number of improvements have been made within the city limits the past year, we are constrained to ask, "Who is it that is shirking his share of the taxes?"

The marriage of Norman J. Heggie and Miss Gabrielle Aguillon was solemnized by the Rev. Father Flemming at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Aguillon, last Wednesday at noon. The wedding was a quiet affair and only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties were present. On returning from their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Heggie will take up their residence at Loma Vista, Agua Caliente.

Several foot races were run in this place last Sunday, the races having been postponed on the 4th on account of the rain. In the Band Boys' race, distance 150 yards, there were three entries, to-wit: Frank Weems, Wm. Wyatt and Claude Johnson. The race was won by Weems. In the 150-yard foot race, free for all, the contestants were Eugene Donaldson, O. Soldate, Wm. Wyatt and Peter Keil. The prize, a set of tinware, was won by Donaldson.
